Theyre Not Just Dogs and Cats

By Donald J. Calaceto DVM

Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 136 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.4in. Let the facts be known to all what the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery has endured with the hope that change may occur. brbr Since the inception of my career, in too many cases I have provided only the medical and surgical services that my clients could afford, instead of the higher quality and more expensive services that I was trained and hoped to perform in the best interests of the pet. brbr The overly frequent disappointments I have experienced because I was not authorized to deliver the kind of veterinary services I recommended for horses and then family pets, due to the lack of government laws and financial assistance, and lack of effort by our national and state veterinary organizations to mount an offensive to remedy this situation, has disturbed me enough to wish I never chose this career path. brbr In short, after over 25 years of private practice, I can say without reservations, especially with the rising cost of health care that unless the types of recommendations I suggest in this book are adopted, that the future duties of the veterinary...
