The Hebrew Club, whose work appears in this volume, first met in my study, and began its work somewhat at my suggestion. What is said as to the personnel of the Club may satisfy the curiosity of the reader, as well as encourage other ministers similarly situated to combine for the more thorough study of the Book of books. Nine years ago we began to meet once a week to read the Old Testament Scriptures in their original tongue. There is something about this grand old language which attracts the lover of sacred things, a heavenly rhythm which fills and inspires his soul, and enables him to say, I love thy law. There is a divine sweetness in the very words in which that law was written. After two years of such pleasurable work we commenced to publish in one of our city newspapers the results...
