Tina Behnke, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Glory World And Guiteau by William McFarland Wayside is part of a collection of some creative stories and poems written originally by a writer who lived in the 1800s. The original writer, William McFarland, was my great, great, great grandpa. This book, THE GLORY WORLD AND GUTEAU, was thus handed down from one generation to another and it is part of my family s heirlooms and a part of my family legacy. I am putting the name Wayside on all his works as that was his pen name! There is some POLITICAL HUMOR, political mystery and political intrigue behind this book. This is quite unique in that this was hidden and preserved for over 123 years by my family and handed down from one generation of my family to another. The works here are thought provoking in my opinion. Since this book here is a fictional story from long ago that was not published before and was kept hidden for at least 123 years after it was written about the PRESIDENT GARFIELD AND HIS ASSASSINATION BY...
