

Wedding Words: Vows

By Jennifer Cegielski

Stewart, Tabori & Chang Inc. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Wedding Words: Vows, Jennifer Cegielski, In this book the bride and groom will find everything they need to know about vows. Vows and vow practices from the Quakers to Muslims (and everything in between) are included for those getting married in a religious ceremony. If a couple wants to write their own vows, the author walks them through several easy steps (including a Q&A section about their relationship) that will result in original, heartfelt words. An extensive selection of poetry, quotes, and lines from love letters is included for the bride and groom to choose from or merely provide inspiration. A section on how to deliver vows is also included, so that this very important part of the ceremony can be heard and shared by the couple's family and friends.

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
