The new annex to the Pittsburgh Homoeopathic hospital, which is the gift of Mrs. William Thaw, is about completed. A housewarming will be one of the social events of the near future, as the building will be occupied not later than June 1st. Its contract price of 27, 000 will probably be swelled to 32, 000 before all is completed. The fiftieth anniversary of the Childrens Homoeopathic Hospital was celebrated April 17th in the beautiful New Century drawing room, with some appropriate exercises. There was a large number of persons present, the audience being especially notable on account of the preponderance of the fair sex. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Herbert. Dr. Bushrod W. James, president of the hospital, followed in a a few remarks. He stated that about fifteen years ago a number of ladies met together and started the institution. They took a building for which they were compelled to pay 1, 000 rental, and other expenses for incidentals. They were often discouraged, but now the institution speaks volumes for itself and the management are encouraged to keep on in their work by reason of the large number of children whom they have cared for and benefited. Treasurer Edward U. Binns read a report on the progress of the institution. He stated that it was started in 1877, and previous to that time, with possibly one exception, there was no hospital for the care of suffering children....
