Excerpt: .by the increasing numbers seeking residence in the dormitories. The Commons has just completed its most successful year in that the patrons of the Commons have very generally approved of the management of the dining hall and for the first time in many years it has been found possible to give satisfactory supplies upon the table and yet not involve the University in a loss. Field Secretary.--The University was fortunate in securing the services of Dr. William J. Hawkins, nine years President of the State Normal School at Warrensburg, as Field Secretary. Dr. Hawkins brought to his work an intimate acquaintance with the high schools of the city, knowing personally many of the superintendents and principals and being familiar also with the conditions which prevail in education throughout the state. As President of the Normal School he also was instrumental in locating superintendents and principals through this whole section of country. Accordingly, on his visits to schools accredited to the University, and to other places, he carried with him not only knowledge of the general situation but a personal acquaintance which made it possible for him to receive such attention as might otherwise have been difficult to secure. Dr. Hawkins spent six months visiting schools over a wide territory. He carried on his work under the direction of the Committee on Accredited Schools, making addresses at many high schools, visiting personally individuals, and trying to present all the departments of the University. In several...
