Excerpt: . . . 11 of the stuff that goes on. It is this kind of attitude that if the Re-publicans are for it, the Democrats have to be against it and vice versa. e Th truth of the matter is that neither side is right all the time. In fact, most of the time, one side or the other is wrong, and we are just trying to put aside all of this partisanship and try to get down to doing what we think makes sense and not worry about who gets credit, who gets blamed, and just try to move things ahead. So, we have worked, and I have worked a number of different areas, but particularly on the Regulatory Affairs Subcommittee here. We did not get everything we wanted, but I think we did im-prove legislation as it moved...
