Excerpt: . . . mail center develop a written mail security plan and have it reviewed annually by a competent authority. Beyond mail-related requirements, GSA also requires the highest-ranking federal official of the largest agency in GSA-controlled (leased) office 10 space to develop an occupant emergency plan. GSA guidance related to this requirement recommends that the occupant emergency plan describe, among other matters, critical information about the office space and actions to be taken during emergencies. The GAO Comptroller Generals Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government provides the overall framework for agency 11 management to establish and maintain effective internal control. Establishing effective internal controls is a major part of managing an organization. Such controls include the plans, methods, and procedures to be used to meet an organizations mission, goals, and objectives by, among other things, monitoring performance, training employees, and ensuring that federal requirements, such as GSA and DOD mail security requirements, are followed. The Pentagon receives its mail from the Postal Service as well as from How Did the Pentagon and commercial courier services. The Postal Service irradiates almost all first-Skyline Complex Process class mail delivered to the Pentagon and other federal agencies in the Mail in March 2005 Washington, D. C. , area, from its facilities on V Street, N. E. in Washington, D. C. (the V Street Operation). In March 2005, Pentagon mail was delivered from the V Street Operation to a mail-screening facility located within the Pentagon remote delivery facility - a 250, 000-square-foot shipping and receiving facility adjoining the Pentagon. Technicians dressed in protective gear then screened the mail over a custom-designed table...
