A legitimate inquiry for sciap leads to affiirming of quotations from knowing dealers and thus there is mingle! weakness and strermth, with perhaps a steadiness of values as the resultant. New York.--Rumors of various kinds have agitated the iron and steel markets in the last week. There has been talk of prices beins likely to break hut denials are vigorous. The supposed dissolution of the steel rail pool was naturally a subject of much discussion but its direct effects--assuming that the pool was dissolved--have been felt more in the stock market than in the trade. Some consumers are exuecting or hoping for concessions in prices of pig iron in the immediate future, but others are buying supplies in a manner which indicates confidence in the stability of the quotations. According to reports several transactions have been closed within the last two or three days at prices lower than any previously accepted during the present year. Yet. the bulk of the actual business has been at the regular figures. Manufacturers of railroad supplies and special classes of machinery have begun to sound the market vigorously with reference to deliveries in the last half of the year. Among the inquiries is one from the American Locomotive Company for 3,200 tons of charcoal and coke iron, most of it to be used in the plant at Paterson, N. J. The! Inteinationl Steam Pump Company bought, 1,000 tons for its..
